THE AMERICAN DERBY.

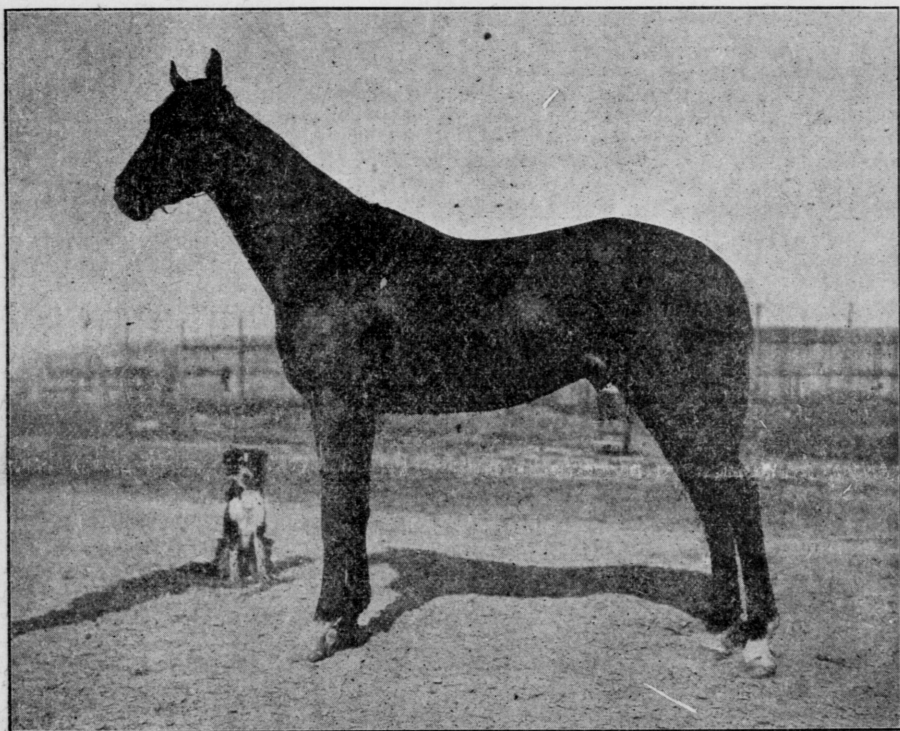

When the gentlemen who founded Washington Park selected the name American appeals to American turfmen and it is within the bounds of probability that in time it will be all to this country that the Epsom Derby is to Great Britain. It is not Chicago's

When the American Derby was first run in 1884 interest in racing was at a low ebb in Chicago. More people go out to view the American Derby now than attended during

Time, 2:43, 4:9, 1:15.

Winner—B. g. by Big Henry—Flora Leach (trained by J. W. O'Neill).

Went to post at 4:17. At post 1 minute. Start good for all but Scorpio. Won handily; second easily. Frank Bell was carefully rated behind the pacemaker, came with a rush when Santa Ventura hung out signals of distress and won in the final stride. Santa Ventura ran her race. Scorpio got away behind his field and had to run around his horses, but can do better. Croix d'Or, a slow beginner, came as usual at the end and needs a longer route to run his best race. Maltster, well backed on the strength of some fast work, ran a dull race. Happy Chappy showed early speed. Erema ran poorly.

Overweights—Erema, 3 pounds.

Frank Bell, show, 2 to 5. Santa Ventura, show, 6 to 5. Scorpio, show, 3 to 5. Croix d'Or, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Br. m. by The Chevalier—Florine (trained by R. R. Rice).

Went to post at 4:45. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Orleans set the pace on suffrance to the three-eighths, where she cut Ladas off and gained three lengths' advantage, which stood her in good stead as she was tiring and all out at the end. Ladas was injudiciously ridden and Dale allowed him to be cut off at the three-eighths. He was apparently beaten in the last hundred yards, but rallied and would have won in a few more strides. Leonid stumbled after the start and made up a lot of ground, but tired in the closing strides. Lunar found the cuppy track trying. She wants a fast track. Pharoah can do much better.

Orleans, show, 3 to 1. Ladas, show, out. Leonid, show, 1 to 2. Lunar, show, out.

Winner—Ch. f. by Loyalist—Penitence (trained by J. T. Combs).

Went to post at 5:13. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving.

Poseur broke running, while the others were crowding each other, opened up a long gap in the first quarter, maintained her speed easily and was fighting for her head at the finish. Mint Leaf closed up stoutly on the outside in the stretch after a rough trip. Almanzo ran a fairly good race. Dolly Hayman ran to the mark. Lady Charlot did her best. Alice Turner was given an easy race. Mabel Winn quit badly and can do better.

Overweights—Poseur, 2 pounds; Mabel Winn, 2.

Winner—Br. c. by St. Andrew—La Favorita (trained by W. M. Stueve).

Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. The track and distance just suited Senor. He showed much the most speed all the way and was never in trouble. Aratoma ran well and was easily the best of the others. Dean was overconfident on him and took matters too easy until in the final furlong. Dr. Moody was tiring at the end. Emma C. L. was crowded back at the turn into the backstretch and Preston was unable to do her justice. This was not her race.

Scratched—39758 Jangler, 102; 39656 Brookston, 96.

Winner—Ch. c, by Mirthful—Bassinette (trained by J. Healy).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving. Baseful is steadily improving and bids fair to develop into the first flight of this season's two-year-olds. He is a colt of grand proportions, began slowly today and trailed his field, weaving in and out until straightened for home, when he went to the front in a flash and was much the best. Monet was a prominent contender throughout and at the end put up a stiff fight. Yellow Hammer was carried wide on the turn, losing considerable ground, but had the advantage of the best going and finished fast. Cascine swerved at the start and held a rear position under an unspeakably bad ride. With clear sailing on the inside he finished out the last quarter fast and was easily second best. Hopeful Miss forced the pace and was a sharp contender when a sixteenth out. Ruth Parrish has worked well.
Scratched—(39743)Montana King, 122; (39512)Jim Kelly, 122.
Baseful, show, out. Monet, show, 2 to 1. Yellow Hammer, show, 7 to 5. Cascine, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Br. c, by Lampighter—The Crow (trained by F. Regan).
Went to post at 2:55. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a canter; second easily. Nevermore was particularly favored by the stiff going, gradually picked up his field and, leading into the stretch, was only cantering at the finish. Coruscate was pocketed and interfered with to the stretch, where with clear sailing she finished like a cyclone. Russell Garth gave the winner a strong argument for nearly six furlongs and evidently liked the going. Jola and Baker Waters, both nearly left, closed a tremendous gap. Scoffer quit badly in the stretch.
Scratched—Pass Book, 113; 39050 Chiclé, 106; 39624 Jim Buck, 106; 39470 Bassanio, 103; 39624 Mayor Graham, 103; 39050 Raglets, 101; 39766 Blue Banner, 101; 39508 Pittacus, 98.

Winner—B. c, by Bassetlaw—Ruralia (trained by F. D. Weir).
Went to post at 3:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Nameoki today stripped hot and full of ginger and with not a trace of his recent soreness. Off to a lucky start he attended the pacemaker closely to the stretch, where he ran past him with ease. Rusk, a quick beginner, beat the barrier and made the most of his advantage, leading well in hand for a half and held on well at the end after a sharp brush with the winner. Jim Kelly was crowded back in the first furlong, after which he was compelled to run around his field, was going fast at the finish and his effort was particularly meritorious at the weights. Jocund, away last and unable to get through, finally worked a rough journey to the stretch, where he was gaining fast on the leaders. Brooklynite is steadily improving. Seymour failed to stay on the grass course and the race is not his true form. Bass got away badly and had no chance. Pentaaur, a grand looker, began slowly and ran on the extreme outside throughout.
Scratched—39768 Race King, 121; 39814 Yellow Hammer, 110; 39478 Colonel Kearney, 110; 38230 Letola, 107.
Corrected weights—Jim Kelly, 125; Tom O'Day, 110.

Winner—B. or br. m, by Ben Strome—Prudence (trained by B. Wood).
Went to post at 3:50. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Lady Uncas got away running, led throughout and won right on the post under Redfern's superb finish. He could have won on any one of the first three. Blues was rushed up next to the rail and forced into the fence and was badly cut on the stifle. Hoar's foot was also crushed and he failed to do the horse justice in the race, worked through finally in the worst going and rode poorly at the finish. Astarita got away poorly and O'Neil was alternately easing her up or sending her to a sudden drive and when too late closed up and was going fastest of all at the end. The others were outrun from the start.

Winner—Br. g, by Potomac—Zamora (trained by G. Tompkins).
Went to post at 4:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Douro ran nearly up to his best form today, rushed to the front on the stretch turn, cantered home alone and was much the best. Sambo was choked back of the ridiculously slow pace for six furlongs and allowed the winner to steal a long lead on him, followed him up when too late and finished with a great rush. Torchlight was at a great disadvantage as pacemaker and was outspurred in the final dash to the wire. Carbuncle was never dangerous, trailing his field throughout.

A SUPPOSED RINGER.

Detroit, Mich., June 19.—E. C. Farley & Co., with the horses Sarah Black, Versifier, Gloria Mundi and Anglesea, were today suspended pending an investigation into the identity of the mare Sarah Black that won a race here June 16 and which is now supposed to have been the mare Aimless. The other member of the firm, T. E. Glenn, of Little Rock, was suspended for abusive and intemperate language and for having offered R. P. Dodson $50 to scratch the horse Tommy Hill. E. E. Farley was today fined $200 and suspended from all privileges of the turf and his case referred to the Western Jockey Club.

READY FOR THE RUNNING.

or eight will be scratched. The condition of the track will have an important bearing on the numerical strength of the field which will go to the post. If it be heavy candidates that are not considered mud horses will be in their stalls while the race is being run, while such others as have demonstrated ability to negotiate any kind of going will be conspicuous figures in the contest and also in betting ring transactions. While the backers of the favorite, Savable, are hoping for a dry course, supporters of Claude, Gold Bell, Gregor K. and Judge Himes are invoking the elements for either slippery or deep footing. Floccarine's backers are indifferent respecting the conditions for the big event, for they believe the filly will perform well on either wet or dry racing ground. Aside from the partisans or backers of mud horses, nearly everybody who will visit Washington Park today will wish for a track that will favor a truly run race, giving no advantage to one division of contestants nor diminishing or ruining the chances of others.

The rainfall last night was an intermittent drizzle which could not have seriously affected the track at Washington Park. In fact, if no more moisture descends this morning the course will be benefited, for yesterday morning it was exceedingly dry and in need of a thorough sprinkling. Should the forecast of clearing and warm weather today be correct there will be a perfect track for the decision of the Derby.

It is not unlikely that the colors of John A. Drake will be carried by Savable alone. High Chancellor has not shown Derby quality and is not mentioned by those identified with the stable when they drop remarks about the Derby. Savable is apparently the stable's dependence and is deemed good enough to win without assistance.

The serious injury sustained by Johnny Reiff at Harlem yesterday, may change the plans of Ed Corrigan, who had arranged to start three horses. When the races were over yesterday he had not decided what he would do. It is believed he will send two to the post and his colors will be worn by Henry and Winkfield. Pat Dunne says Early is not likely to start and that information is ground for the belief that the colored jockey will be astride of one of the Corrigan starters. Dunne says: "One of the Hawthorne horses must bring back that Derby, or the other horses in training there won't do well."

M. J. Daly was pleased when the rain began to fall yesterday evening, but intimated that Claude would not be outclassed on a dry track. "Claude," said he, "is ready and not bothering about anything. He can stand a good beating one day and be ready to run again the next day, which is more than any of the others he will have to meet, can do."

George C. Bennett announced yesterday that Au Revoir's starting would depend on ceded that if fast work is worthy of consideration his preliminary performance entitles him to respect and indicates that he may be returned the winner of the big race.

Dick Welles does not appear to have been prepared for the Derby. Trainers who have watched him at exercise say he has not been given requisite work. Rome Respass is likely to send out his other two candidates, Bernays and Collonade, both of which are unquestionably fit.

bet was made last winter with O'Leary when he was quoting my horse at 125 to 1. Some bystander jokingly remarked, 'why don't you lay it off at 10 to 1?' I know I would not have any trouble to lay it off and make a handsome profit, too, but I think well enough of my horse's chances in the race to stand pat."

S. W. Streett arrived yesterday at Washington Park from Detroit with twelve horses. Jockey J. Woods, who was suspended last dent would be attended by serious results, as both the jockeys appeared to have been struck by the rearguard of the field and laid seemingly lifeless until picked up by some stable hands, who carried them to the paddock. The doctors, who were summoned, after a hasty examination found that beyond a severe shaking up and a cut on the head, jockey Sinclair was uninjured. Reiff was found to have sustained a slight dislocation of his left shoulder blade, which will cause †Coupled in betting.

Fred Cook's representative, Linguist, with Dominick up, will positively carry the St. Louis turfman's colors and money. His race against Savable in the Harlem Special established him as an interesting factor in Derby calculations.

And Charley Ellison, who stands to win $18,000 in the winter books on Judge Himes, believes no other candidate has a better chance. Having been a close contender against Savable and Linguist last Wednesday, his performance this afternoon will be one of absorbing interest. In the event of a heavy track, he may be the post favorite.

Monsieur Beaucaire, in appearance a "circus horse," is considerable of a race nag. He ran second to Claude in the St. Louis Derby, showed ability to go the route at a year at Hawthorne by Judge Trevelyan for an alleged criminal ride on J. V. Kirby, was at Harlem yesterday and stated that he will make application to the Western Jockey Club at its next meeting for reinstatement.

E. Corrigan's imported horse, heretofore called Ravel, which is carded as a starter in the American Derby, will run in that race as Rate. The change was made on account of the name Ravel already being in use.

him to have his arm put in a sling for several weeks, and a cut on the head. He was removed to the Garfield Park Sanitarium.

Jockey H. Phillips, who rode Bonnie Lissak in the last race, escaped injury when his mount fell.

Jockey C. Davis, who rode Goldaga in the last race, was fined $50 by the judges for pulling his mount in on the field and nearly causing Omdurman to fall while rounding the first turn.

CANDIDATES' PERFORMANCES.

The table below, besides giving the probable jockeys today, shows the best winning performances this year nearest to the Derby route of each horse, their reported trials, the opening price in the future books and Smith & Perry's closing quotations against each probable starter:

the track. He will certainly start if the track be dry. Who will ride him was not determined yesterday. Fore and Aft is a sure starter in any event. Will McDaniel imparted that information yesterday afternoon. The Picket will also go, regardless of track conditions. His phenomenal trial at Harlem, when he went the Derby distance in 2:33 or a shade better, the best work ever done by any three-year old, has aroused prolific discussion of his chances. It is con-strong pace and gained a lot of admirers, who assert that he has more than an outside chance today. T. J. Gallagher.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

C. R. Ellison stated in the paddock at Harlem yesterday that the report that he had backed Judge Himes heavily in the future books to win the American Derby was entirely false. "The only bet I made on him for the Derby was $150 against $18,750. This Winner—B. f. by Orsini—Sloe (trained by C. Lind).

Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same.

Orsina showed much speed throughout and had plenty in reserve to stall off Sarah Maxim's determined challenge in the last sixteenth. The latter began slowly, but made up ground rapidly in the last quarter and finished going fast. She would probably have won with any kind of racing luck. Alfio showed speed, but tired when the pinch came. Olonetz was beaten when a sixteenth from home. Our Bessie met with early interference and had no chance after the first quarter had been run. Galba and Discord fell just after passing around the first turn.

Went to post at 3:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving.

Dr. Stephens ran a sparkling race. He displayed great speed throughout and easily withstood Six Shooter's and Major Tenny's challenges in the final sixteenth. Six Shooter closed up ground fast in the final eighth, but was pinned in against the inside rail in the last hundred yards. Major Tenny stood a long stretch drive and finished with great gameness. Winner—Ch. g. by Golden Garter—Music, by Glenelg (trained by J. Maloney).

Went to post at 5:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Alfred C. ran his usual honest race, showed much speed and, after running Annie Thompson into submission, had enough left to withstand Omdurman and Cogswell in the final hundred yards. Omdurman finished going fast and outstayed Cogswell. The latter faltered just a shade in the closing strides. Major Dixon stood a long stretch drive well and made up some ground in the last quarter. Annie Thompson was well beaten when a sixteenth out. Red Tip showed some early speed. Bonnie Lissak fell just after the start and ran away two miles after throwing her jockey.

Scratched—39760 Best Man, 105; 39691*Allee, 102; 39537 Prince Blazes, 102; 39472 Gracious, 100; (39666)Bluemint, 99; 39716 Montana Peeress, 96.

Corrected weights—Omdurman, 107.

Overweights—Cogswell, 1 pound.

Alfred C., show, 6 to 5. Omdurman, show, 2 to 1. Cogswell, show, 6 to 5. Felix Bard, show, 1 to 2.

THE AMERICAN DERBY.

conducted on the old West Side track in a fashion that destroyed public confidence in its integrity and it took several years of well managed racing at Washington Park to restore the greatest of open air diversions to its due place in general esteem.

It fell to Mr. Edward Corrigan to win the first and his first and only American Derby when his splendid War Dance mare, Modesty, guided by the masterly hand of Isaac Murphy, outlasted Kosciusko and Bob Cook in a thrilling and desperately contested drive to the winning line. It was short heads apart between the three at the end, the closest three-horse finish in the history of the big race. Modesty was one of the great mares of American turf history and afterwards confirmed her right to win an American Derby by brilliant successes on the important tracks of the east and west.

The second running of the Derby inaugurated "Lucky" Baldwin's remarkable series of triumphs in this greatest of western races. Volante, son of Grinstead and a great racehorse, won from Favor and Troubadour, also great racehorses. Oddly enough Albert S. Gage and John E. Brewster, who were two of the founders of Washington Park, had a few years before selected two stallions for Mr. Baldwin, Grinstead and Rutherford, and it was a son of the former that now came on to win the chief honors of the track in which both were so deeply interested. It was Isaac Murphy in the saddle again. In fact the "Colored Archer" seemed to have a monopoly of winning the American Derby in its early history, he riding four out of the first five winners. Volante's Derby was easily won over a very heavy track. Troubadour won the Suburban of the succeeding year.

Silver Cloud, another son of Grinstead, for second place by the outsider Falcon. The next Derby, that of 1889, was notable from the fact that it was won by the only Illinois bred colt that has ever carried off the race, Spokane, by Hyder Ali. It was marked also by the total overthrow of Proctor Knott, Sam Bryant and the famous game cock colors. It was a sad day for Old Kentucky when Proctor Knott failed to even land in the first three.

The worst field that ever contested the American Derby went to the post in 1890. Even such a little runt as Dave Waldo's Jed was thought to have a chance, but Uncle Bob was backed to odds-on and was an easy winner. It was different in 1891 when Strathmeath won. The field was made up of fine colts and it was won by a wise study of the condition of the track. Before the race Green Morris and his jockey George Covington tramped over the track from end to end, it being slow and "spotty," carefully mapping out the good going and Covington, in the race, went weaving in and out on the course picked out, the result being that Strathmeath, while covering more ground than his competitors, was always striding on comparatively firm ground and thereby won decisively. It was in this race that the big raking Longfellow colt High Tariff fell dead.

The Derby of 1892 was contested over a track about as bad as a track can be, Carlsbad taking 3:04 1/2 to cover the mile and a half. Azra stumbled at the path made by vehicles crossing the track to the infield, else he would almost certainly have won.

The $60,000 Derby of 1893, the World's Fair year, was contested for by the picked horses of the country and one representative of England, the Duke of Beaufort's Strathrose. Don Alonzo, Ramapo, St. Leonards and Chorister were the eastern representatives. How Boundless left the others on the stretch turn and came home alone is still fresh in won the Derby of 1886 for Mr. Baldwin, the race affording a singular illustration of Isaac Murphy's genius as a rider. Silver Cloud was inferior as a racer to at least three other colts in the race, although by no means a bad one himself. When nearing the far turn Murphy suddenly shot his mount out and soon established a long lead which the riders of Blue Wing, Ben Ali and Sir Joseph did not regard seriously, expecting Silver Cloud would soon come back to them. But Isaac nursed him so carefully out in front that he had a good run left, and when it came to a decision Silver Cloud was first by two lengths, his crafty rider having literally stolen the race from better horses and worse jockeys.
